ORDER

Respondent appeals from an Award entered by Administrative Law Judge Robert H. Foerschler dated December 18, 1995. The Appeals Board heard oral argument April 16, 1996.

APPEARANCES

Claimant appeared by and through his attorney, Steven C. Effertz of Independence, Missouri. Respondent and its insurance carrier appeared by and through their attorney, John David Jurcyk of Lenexa, Kansas.

RECORD AND STIPULATIONS

The Appeals Board has reviewed and considered the record described in the Award. The Appeals Board has also adopted the stipulations listed in the Award. Those stipulations include the stipulations regarding the nature and extent of claimant's disability. After taking the stipulations, the issues remaining for decision by the Administrative Law Judge were:

- (1) Whether the relationship of employer/employee existed between claimant and respondent at the time of the alleged accidental injury.
- (2) What temporary total disability compensation, if any, should be awarded to claimant.

(3) Whether claimant should be entitled to payment for past medical expenses.

ISSUES

Respondent's Application for Review lists two issues:

- (1) Whether or not the relationship of employer/employee existed between claimant and respondent at the time of the alleged accidental injury.
- (2) Whether or not claimant should be entitled to be reimbursed for past medical expenses that were incurred.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

After reviewing the record and considering the arguments of the parties, the Appeals Board finds and concludes that claimant has sustained his burden of establishing that he was an employee of the respondent at the time of his work-related injury. The Appeals Board so finds for the reasons stated in the Award by the Administrative Law Judge. The findings and conclusions in that Award are hereby adopted by the Appeals Board as its own. In summary, the Appeals Board finds the evidence establishes respondent had the right to control the manner in which the claimant performed his work. Falls v. Scott, 249 Kan. 54, 815 P. 2d 1104 (1991).

The Appeals Board also concludes that the medical expenses itemized in the record should be paid by respondent. Although they were not authorized at the time they were incurred, the case has now been determined to be a compensable claim. The employer is liable for the medical care procured by the claimant in accordance with rules stated in Cross v. Wichita Compressed Steel Co., 187 Kan. 344, 356 P. 2d 804 (1960).
